ABOUT THE PLAY

Arkadia Theatre Company presents God of Carnage. "A comedy of manners. Without the manners." GOD OF CARNAGE by Yasmina Reza, translated by Christopher Hampton. Recipient of the 2009 Tony Award® for Best Play.

THE STORY A playground altercation between eleven-year-old boys brings together two sets of Brooklyn parents for a meeting to resolve the matter. At first, diplomatic niceties are observed, but as the meeting progresses, and the rum flows, tensions emerge and the gloves come off, leaving the couples with more than just their liberal principles in tatters.

Founded in 2022 by three friends, hailing from India, Italy and Switzerland, who found each other and their love for Chekhov in New York. For the first three years we exclusively produced Chekhov's works.

Our mission is to give a creative home to immigrant and international artists.

We aim to provide a creative platform, career building steppingstones, work experience and resume-building credits.

ABOUT ARKADIA

We produce works that question class systems and cultural power structures... always with a hint of schadenfreude, just like Anton Chekhov would have liked it.

We believe that audiences are ready for diverse casts as well as new, imaginative, innovative forms of theater.
